Dr Rakesh Kumar's Predictions Prove right again! Donald Trump elected 47th U.S. President.

-November 6th, 2024

Dear Friends,

Yet another amazing prediction from Dr. Rakesh Kumar \(PhD\) proved to be so accurate and true! Donald Trump is now elected 47th President of the United States of America, winning both the Electoral and Popular votes.

Although many media outlets, economists, politicians and experts including Allan Lichtman, the historian who had never been wrong since 1984, were first predicting Joe Biden and then Kamala Harris to win. But they were all proven wrong.

Please read Dr. Rakesh Kumar's predictions coming true below.

Predictions for US Elections 2024 (PDF)

– By Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Ph.D., written on July 20, 2024

Hello Friends,

As we are all waiting eagerly about the US Elections this November and what to expect of the coming days, I looked at the horoscopes of the top 4 candidates and also of the horoscope of America, and thereby made my predictions.

Before I go further, let me please make it clear. I am not supporting any candidate here. I am merely looking at the horoscopes of the candidates and predicting the outcome as per their horoscope as per Vedic Astrology. This is not about Democrats or Republicans. It's about America and the rest of the world and the economy and the wars around the world, by which not only the country, the people and the rest of the world get affected. Therefore, as NYPD says "If you see something, say something." So I am just saying...

Now let's start with the chart of Donald Trump. I had predicted in my previous newsletter that from May this year onwards Donald Trump's time is good and he is likely to regain the position of President. I had also written that there would be people in the government and his own party who would backstab him, which also happened.

From September 29th he begins the sub-period of Venus and his good days are going to start. His transits also show that he is going to be more wise and do a good administration this time. He is in the major period of Jupiter and the planets are all favored to give him success.

Now let's see Joe Biden's horoscope. Joe Biden is going through a bad transit and he also began the major period of Saturn since June 2022. During the present time and the days to come things don't look good for him. I had written this in my earlier newsletters and writing this again: he is likely to be afflicted mentally and he may also be susceptible to cardio vascular problems. Therefore, in one line, I will say – his time is up.

Now let's move to Kamala Harris. As per Kamala's chart, she is in a period of Saturn return and also in the major period of Rahu. She is likely to be mentally stressed and also have some challenges in her family life. She is also in a period of Jupiter return, but this is not going to help her in any way. As per her birth chart (if her birth information is correct), I think she became Vice President due to "circumstances". She was born on a full-Moon day and on a Tuesday, and that's why she had a share of success in the earlier years. But I feel her re-run for Vice President or run for President is over as per her planets.

April 2024 Predictions:

Predictions for the countries:

Now for the countries:

As per China's chart, they are definitely likely to get affected by this eclipse. The leadership will get weakened. Their finances will get affected and China will continue to pick up problems with their neighbors which in time to come will become their undoing. Exactly one year from now China will go through a very severe crisis. But that's another story.

Now we look at India's chart. India may experience some interference and some comments from some foreign countries and some may try to taint India's image and even the leadership. This is going to be because of some bad journalism and misinformation and some jealousy. India is the fastest growing economy in the world today and many western countries find that very hard to swallow. But India is a very strong country now and it is a force to reckon with internationally. From October 2025 onwards India will become a world leader in many ways. After 1st of May this year Prime Minister Modi becomes very strong.

Some additional predictions for America now.

Joe Biden's moon is in Aries and as per his chart it shows that his mental faculties, his speech, his memory and central nervous system will all get affected especially during the Eclipse period. And I have been saying this before, and saying it again that he should look after his health rather than his chair.

Donald Trump is going through a stressful time, no doubt. But from 1st of May onwards his position becomes strong and he may become President again.

As per America's chart things don't look very good at all. America is going to have a lot of debts and economic crisis and a Recession. There is already a high inflation and this is going to get worse. All the printed money is soon going to run out and the treasury will become empty. The common man will bear the brunt. America will only start gaining its uplift momentum from May 2025 onwards. But that's another story.

January 2024 predictions:

America/ Joe Biden/ Donald Trump

Now for America. I had already predicted earlier that America is going through the peak of the 7 ½ year of Saturn. I had also said in 2020 that if Joe Biden becomes president, the American economy would be destroyed. Joe Biden's horoscope is just not harmonious with America's chart. Call it an irony of fate or destiny, whether by hook or by crook Biden got elected as president and America went into a doom. From Biden's chart it does not appear that he will be re-elected or run for president. His time is up.

I had also written in my last newsletter, IF Donald Trump is allowed to stand up for president that he would win. He is in the major period of Jupiter and his sub-period of Venus will begin from February 11 2024. He is also going through a bad transit of the planet Saturn which will continue for some time. But from May 1st 2024 Jupiter comes into a favorable transit for him which can make him win again.

June 2023 predictions:

Whether Donald Trump will stand up for president or not is not known yet, but his time looks positive from May 2024 onwards. His horoscope shows he was defamed and dethroned by some of his own associates in his office.
